Matters Not Reasonably Anticipated by the Chair

Adjourn

Please note: The list of matters are those reasonably anticipated by the Committee chair, which may be discussed at the meeting. Not all items listed may, in fact, be discussed and other items not listed may, in fact, be discussed, to the extent permitted by law. It is possible that, if it so votes, the Committee may go into Executive Session. The Committee may also act on items in an order other than which they appear on the agenda. Persons interested are advised that, in the event any matter taken up at the meeting remains unfinished at the close of the meeting, the matter may be put off to a continued session of this meeting with proper notice. Prudential Committee meetings are conducted in compliance with the Massachusetts Open Meeting Law (M.G.L. Chapter 30A, Sections 18-25). For the regular monthly meetings of the Prudential Committee, there shall be a reasonable amount of time for public comments. The public does not participate in committee discussions and/or deliberations. "No person shall address a meeting of a public body without permission of the Chair and all persons shall, at the request of the chair, be silent. No person shall disrupt the proceedings of a meeting of a public body. If after clear warning from the chair, a person continues to disrupt the proceedings, the chair may order the person to withdraw from the meeting; and if the person does not withdraw, the chair may authorize a constable or other official to remove the person from the meeting." M.G.L. Chapter 30A, Section 20(g)
